Industry Update

6th Street Bridge Crew Gets the Job Done with a Lot of Woman Power

The 6th Street Bridge team of 170 includes 15 women — the most on any commercial project in Los Angeles and nearly double the Department of Labor's participation goal of 6.9% female crew members. The $428-million project is being constructed by Swedish construction company Skanska, in a joint venture with San Francisco-based Stacy and Witbeck. Skanska includes a senior executive team that is half women.

National Safety Stand-Down 2020

In the last issue of the Connection, we shared about AGC and AutoDesk's new grant program focusing on safety harnesses for women (<https://www.agc.org/industry-priorities/safety-health/agc-autodesk-safety-harness-grant-program>). It only seems fitting that we should now encourage you to save the date for next year's Safety Stand-Down!

Fatalities caused by falls from elevation continue to be a leading cause of death for construction employees, accounting for 366 of the 971 construction fatalities recorded in 2017 (BLS data). Those deaths were preventable. The National Safety Stand-Down raises fall hazard awareness across the country in an effort to stop fall fatalities and injuries.
